

B.Ed.Hons. 2.5 Secondary

Teaching of Islamic Studies (Pedagogy) (Semester 5)

Course Outcomes:

On completion of this course the prospective teachers will be able to:

- Describe the aims, goals and objectives of Islamic Education.
- Describe the concept of the teaching of Islamic studies.
- Discuss various ways of effective teaching.
- Analyse traditional and modern methods of teaching of Islamic Studies.
- Compare the subject of Islamic studies with other social science subjects.
- Realize the need of lesson planning and prepare Lesson Plans.
- Explain the importance of A.V. Aids.

Chapter No. 1: Introduction

- The objectives of teaching of Islamic Studies in the light of National Educational policies.
- Corelation of Islamic Studies with school subjects. (Math, S.St, languages, science).
- Maxims of teaching
- Translation method
- Lecture method
- Assignment method
- Discussion method
- Problem solving method
- Project method
- Constructive method
- Demonstration method
- Holy Quran and teaching
- Holy prophet Muhammad ﷺ as a teacher.

Chapter No. 2: Qualities of Islamic Studies Teacher

- Personal Attributes of Islamic Studies Teacher
- Professional characteristics of Islamic Studies teacher in the light of NPSTP
- Responsibilities of Islamic Studies teacher

Chapter No. 3: Teaching Technology

- The need, importance and use of A.V. Aids in teaching of Islamic Studies

Chapter No. 4: Lesson Planning of Islamic Studies for Secondary classes and its preparation

Books Recommended:

1.	Islamiat and its teaching sketch	Ali Oasat Siddiqui, Karachi
2.	Educational Principal and Method of teaching	Fazal Ahmed
3.	Teaching of Islamiat	S.M. Shahid, Majeed Book Dipo
4.	Teaching of Islamiat (Code #654 for B.Ed.)	AIOU, Islamabad
5.	Mode of Education in the light of Prophet Teaching	Dr. SHAH Moeenuddin Hashmi Monthly Al Dawa, Dawa Academy, International Islamic University, Islamabad, May 1998